ARTISTS XMAS 2016 OPEN 56 VENUES HOUSES

Visiting the Artists Open Houses Christmas Festival is a great way to take the strain out of Christmas shopping and this Christmas the AOH Festival is bigger and better than ever. Spreading to the furthest reaches of Brighton and Hove and out to the South Downs village of Ditchling, a visit to the Artists Open Houses is the perfect way to kick off the festive season.

Throughout the city, artists open up their homes and studios, welcoming you inside. The wealth of established and professional artists and makers, as well as new and emerging artists, offers the perfect opportunity to pick up a unique and original Christmas gift for friends, family - or for yourself! This year brings work from some of the country's top makers in the fields of ceramics, jewellery, print-making and home-wares, as well as handcrafted Christmas cards, wreaths, tree decorations and foodie gifts.

Taking a break from the High Street, you can shop in warmth and comfort, sip a glass of mulled wine and try a mince pie, beside a blazing hearth. Christmas Artists Open Houses create a special atmosphere, where you can chat to the artists and have a sneaky peak around some of Brighton's most interesting homes, whilst viewing an amazing selection of individual, unique arts and crafts.

Don't forget to visit: www.aoh.org.uk where you can find out more about the Artists Open Houses. You will also find links to many of the artists' and makers' own websites.

Opening times

Be sure to check opening times of all Open Houses in their individual listings. Although the most popular opening times are between 11am and 6pm, Saturdays and Sundays, some venues' opening times and days may differ.

Paying for Purchases

Most Open Houses are able to take card payments – but remember to check in the brochure for payment symbols in each venue listing, and perhaps take a cheque book and/or cash to be on the safe side!

Access

The majority of houses are ordinary homes and may not have disabled access. Please check with venues individual brochure listings, and take a look at our 'disabled access' website section.

Come and join us to celebrate the eclectic work of our residents in this open house right in the centre of Brighton. Our organisation houses and supports men and women who have experienced unsettled housing and homelessness and the works on display will include paintings, sculptures, creative writing, collages and colouring. Our last art exhibition was described as 'really inspiring and thought provoking' by visitors and we hope to see you on 10th December to discover some new pieces by these talented artists.

Open 10 December only

Trail's End is back!
This time, four of our artists live(d) and work(ed) in Arundel Terrace - three of them at No.5. Art has been made here since the 50s - from William De Belleruche to us here now. Come and see what captivates and inspires us, at the sea-end of what is surely the prettiest square in Brighton!

See our Facebook page for details of private views and previews.

Marc Bonnel

We are very sorry to hear the sad news of the death of Marc Bonnel. So many artists and visitors alike will remember the Dragonfly House as a pivotal house in the Beyond The Level trail. The Dragonfly House was seminal to the development of the Artists Open Houses, with its inclusivity in showing great art and craft, available and affordable for all, in the context of a beautiful home. Many artists will remember Marc too for the exceptional craftsmanship of his frames. With these he has left a wonderful legacy - he built frames to last a lifetime - and set a high standard for the Open Houses. Marc was proud that people visiting the Dragonfly House would appreciate his work - for him presentation was foremost.

Curtis Tappenden, a Beyond The Level trail co-founder and friend, pays tribute to: "Marc and Angie's brilliant joint teamwork in all they did in the formative years of Open Houses. They brought a catalyst of change that was supremely professional, and for many years the Dragonfly House was unmatched. Marc and Angie changed everything."

Our thoughts and good wishes are with Marc's family and especially with Angie, who always shared her wonderful warmth and welcome with all-comers to the Dragonfly House.

54 Pruden and Smith

The Crossroads, 2 South Street, Ditchling BN6 8UQ

Pruden and Smith are designers and craftsmen in precious metals whose passion for contemporary design shows in everything they do. Their gallery and new display area within their adjoining workshops on Ditchling Crossroads showcases their work in gold, platinum, and silver incorporating diamonds and unusual gemstones from all over the world. This year look out for new designs featuring 2000 year old Roman glass from Afghanistan. They offer a complete design to make service for any item in precious metal from engagement rings to chalices. They can also incorporate or redesign your existing jewellery in a process they call 'A Precious Legacy'.

Designer Rebecca Smith takes inspiration and materials from your existing jewellery collection to generate designs for new pieces. It ensures that your jewellery is out of your jewellery box and worn whilst maintaining the sentimental connection to past pieces. Many of the designs on display are to generate ideas for this process.

Take a tour of their workshop, and follow with a look at their history by visiting Ditchling Museum of Art and Craft, which features the work and tools of Anton Pruden's grandfather, Dunstan, silversmith on The Guild of St Joseph and St. Dominic.

A small gallery in the centre of Lewes showcasing my work as a portrait and reportage photographer, with a focus on the use of natural light in local landscapes. Featuring my new exhibition Images of Childhood, a series of portrait photographs of children and young people. Each chose to be photographed in a setting that is meaningful to them and an activity that is important in their lives. The portraits are accompanied by individual drawings and writings expressing their voices and telling their own stories in different formats.
